Capabilities Statement

Surfside

CONTRACTING, INC.

Company Overview

Surfside has learned that there are three critical components of operating a service oriented business: quality, integrity and customer service. We provide value and a professional approach to construction for our clients. We emphasize communication between all project team members as we strive to make every phase of the construction process a positive experience. Surfside provides help every step of the way. Our management team remains actively involved in all of our projects conducting weekly site inspections and scheduling regular owners meetings with the development team. We use only reputable local subcontractors that have proven track records. We employ only experienced carpenters. Our on site management insures that these trades come together in an efficient manner to deliver the highest quality craftsmanship. Our staff is dedicated to making your experience enjoyable. Our clients always come first.
